January 28, 2024 Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time

"Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties." - 1 Corinthians 7:32

How much anxiety do we bring upon ourselves by constantly worrying about not having enough, or attaining more goals or things not looking the way we thought they would?

God won't necessarily give us everything we want, but He will provide everything we need. What a perfect reminder that is as we move forward next weekend into the new Mass schedule. God will indeed provide us with everything we need. He sees our entire lives as the beautiful story on a canvas, that He has written, from beginning to end. Whatever anxieties you may have, relate them over to God and trust that He will provide you with the Grace to cast all your worries upon him because he cares for you.

please submit your information to bulletin@cppnebraska.org

(by Mondays at 12:00PM for the bulletin please!)

If you send your information to this email address, it is sure to be seen and addressed by the bulletin editor & communications department.

As we continue to move forward on our Journey of Faith, many changes are happening. We are all on this journey together, and we are all experiencing change.

May we all encounter others with humility, grace, patience and understanding.

One thing we know that never changes is our Lord.

Pope John/St. Boniface “Challenge Grant”

Pope John and St. Boniface Schools have been selected as one of five schools in the Archdiocese of Omaha to receive a $200,000 matching grant from the Lavigne Foundation. The Challenge Grant has the potential to provide up to $400,000 for the schools.

After consideration of the needs of the school and in alignment with the wishes of the donor, Pope John and St. Boniface are raising funds for a minibus, a bus barn, and a new playground structure for the school site. In the event that funds beyond the cost of these items are raised, they will be utilized for safety, security, and building updates.

Donations to the Challenge Grant may be sent to:
