GENERAL NEWS

St. Joseph

Feast Day: Mar 19

The Bible pays Joseph the highest compliment: he was a "just" man. The quality meant a lot more than faithfulness in paying debts.

When the Bible speaks of God "justifying" someone, it means that God, the all-holy or "righteous" one, so transforms a person that the individual shares somehow in God's own holiness, and hence it is really "right" for God to love him or her. In other words, God is not playing games, acting as if we were lovable when we are not.

By saying Joseph was "just," the Bible means that he was one who was completely open to all that God wanted to do for him. He became holy by opening himself totally to God.

The rest we can easily surmise. Think of the kind of love with which he wooed and won Mary, and the depth of the love they shared during their marriage.

It is no contradiction of Joseph's manly holiness that he decided to divorce Mary when she was found to be with child. The important words of the Bible are that he planned to do this "quietly" because he was "a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame" (Matthew 1:19).

The just man was simply, joyfully, wholeheartedly obedient to God—in marrying Mary, in naming Jesus, in shepherding the precious pair to Egypt, in bringing them to Nazareth, in the undetermined number of years of quiet faith and courage.

KNOW YOUR FAITH

Join Fr. Sund each week for a short lesson on faith!

"What if I forgot to confess a sin?"

Our minds are not perfect, sometimes we forget things. What happens if one of these times happens to be when I am in the confessional? The Catechism tells us that after a diligent examination of our conscience we must confess all mortal sins that we are aware of. We also are encouraged to confess venial sins (smaller sins) if they have an impact on our love of God or neighbor.

The key for our question is the confession of sins that I am aware of at the time of my confession. Forgetting a sin is different from purposefully withholding a sin out of fear or embarrassment. If I withhold a mortal sin, that is a mortal sin in itself committed in confession. However, if one forgets to confess a sin with no ill intention, we believe that those sins are forgiven in the Sacrament. The difference between the two is that my intention in the latter was to confess all of my mortal sins.

We need not worry then and rack our minds over previous confessions, wondering if we ever forgot a sin we committed in our lives if we have had the intention to make a good confession. However, if I do remember some sins I haven't confessed, it may be helpful when I go to my next confession to mention it to receive guidance over those areas in my life.
