... Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger ...

He straightened up and said to them, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her."

In John's Gospel message, Jesus masterfully handled the manipulative scribes and Pharisees. But even more importantly, he handles the woman with tender mercy, offering her not just forgiveness but an invitation to transformation and belonging. Our loving Lord knows our sins, too, and is always ready to offer us the same mercy.

Even now, says the Lord, return to me with your whole heart; for I am gracious and merciful Joel 2:12-13

By decree of His Excellency George J. Lucas, Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish's boundaries are changed to incorporate the small group of parishioners from Tilden who were accidentally not included in the parish boundaries when the merged parish was erected due to many having post office boxes and so they did not show up on the map used to design Annunciation Parish's original boundaries. The decree is posted in each of Annunciation Parish's churches. The change in parish boundaries becomes effective May 1, 2025.
