Divine Mercy Sunday

April 24, 2022

JESUS IS THE FACE OF THE FATHER'S MERCY

The Sunday after Easter is called Divine Mercy Sunday. Pope St. John Paul II brought this Polish devotion as a gift to the universal Church. Jesus is the one who sees us as loveable, forgivable, and redeemable. Mercy goes beyond what justice demands... for we cannot make claims against God in justice... to the place where God shows his tenderness and love to us.

POPE FRANCIS'S 2022 CHRISM MASS HOMILY

In Rome, every priest in the city that shows up is permitted to concelebrate Mass with the pope on Holy Thursday morning. This is when the Vatican celebrates the Chrism Mass. In recent years, this mass and its homily become a moment in which the pope chooses to speak directly to priests. His message is often a reflection on graces received... and a challenge as well. This year is no exception. I believe the message is enriching for all of us.

...Being priests, dear brothers, is a grace, a very great grace, yet it is not primarily a grace for us, but for our people (that we serve). The fact that the Lord chooses, from among his flock, some who devote themselves exclusively to the care of his flock as fathers and shepherds is a great gift for our people... If we think about it, dear brother priests, the Lord is inviting us to be faithful to him, to be faithful to his covenant, and to let ourselves be loved and forgiven by him. They are invitations addressed to us, so that in this way we can serve... Our people deserve this and they need it...

Pope Francis gives us three idols... or distractions... from grace:

[The first is] is spiritual worldliness, which is "a proposal of life, a culture, a culture of the ephemeral, of appearances, of the cosmetic". Its criterion is triumphalism, a triumphalism without the cross. Jesus prayed that the Father would defend us against this culture of worldliness. This temptation of glory without the cross runs contrary to the very person of the Lord, it runs contrary to Jesus, who humbled himself in the incarnation and, as a sign of contradiction, is our sole remedy against every idol. Being poor with Christ who was poor and "chose to be poor": this is the mindset of Love; nothing else... A worldly priest is nothing more than a clericalized pagan.

[The second is] the kind of pragmatism where numbers become the most important thing. Those who cherish this hidden idol can be recognized by their love for statistics, numbers that can depersonalize every discussion and appeal to the majority as the definitive criterion for discernment; this is not good. This cannot be the sole method or criterion for the Church of Christ. Persons cannot be "numbered", and God does not "measure out" his gift of the Spirit (cf. Jn 3:34). In this fascination and love of numbers, we are really seeking ourselves, pleased with the control offered us by this way of thinking, unconcerned with individual faces and far from love. One feature of the great saints is that they know how to step back in order to leave room completely for God.

[The third] comes from functionalism. This can be alluring; many people "are more enthusiastic about the roadmap than about the road". The functionalist mindset has short shrift for mystery; it aims at efficiency. Little by little, this idol replaces the Father's presence within us. The first idol replaces the Son's presence, the second one the Spirit's, and the third one the Father's. Our Father is the creator, but not simply a creator who makes things "function". He "creates" us, as our Father, with tender love, caring for his creatures and working to make men and women ever more free. "Functionaries" take no delight in the graces that the Spirit pours out on his people, from which they too can "be nourished"... The priest with a functionalist mindset has his own nourishment, which is his ego.

In these last two spaces of hidden idolatry (the pragmatism of numbers and functionalism), we replace hope, which is the space of encounter with God, with empirical results. This shows an attitude... that weakens the union of his people with God and forges a new idol based on numbers and programs: the idol of "my power, our power", of our programs, of our numbers and pastoral plans.

God does not run out of grace, and we are all called to conversion and change within ourselves. Let's look to Christ who leads!

Peace,
