Seeking Truth Bible Study

St. Peter, Ewing is inviting parishioners & friends of Catholic Parishes in Partnership to begin a new session-our 9th year-of Seeking Truth Catholic Bible Study. This year we are studying The Gospel According to Luke, Starting Wednesday, Aug 19 @ 9:30AM at St. Dominic's Hall, Ewing. We meet weekly, and there are 22 lessons. For more information or to register, phone or text Elaine Thoendel @ 402.340.5176 or elaine@tlc-ne.com. You will personally benefit from being part of this study & growing in deeper love & understanding of the Biblical roots of our faith. You will also grow in fellowship & friendship with other parishioners as we grow closer to Christ together. Mass and the sacraments come to life in the understanding of their scriptural media presentations of each lesson by teacher Sharon Doran. Please give it a try & see if it is something that might help stir up the Spirit within you. We'd love to have you join us.

birthright

Would you like to make a difference in the life of a young lady who may be experiencing an unplanned pregnancy? Birthright of Norfolk is hoping to expand its list of volunteers, and we would love to have you join us. We ask that you volunteer in our office one day a month for about 3 hours. We will provide you with the training you need to be a well-informed volunteer. If this sounds like something you would like to try, please contact Cindy Dinkel @ 402.841.1414 & we will be happy to visit with you about becoming a Birthright volunteer. We plan to hold the training sessions in September.

IXIM: SPIRIT OF SOLIDARITY

Since 2004, the Archdiocese of Omaha has had a relationship of faith, fellowship & solidarity with the Diocese of Huehuetenango, Guatemala. Parishioners from across the Archdiocese of Omaha, including parishioners from Elgin & Neligh have gone to our sister diocese in Huehuetenango, Guatemala to work alongside our sisters & brothers in Christ. Ixim missionaries build bridges of understanding and solidarity by learning about the lives & realities for those in Huehuetenango. They staff medical clinics, teach lessons at local schools, apply fluoride treatment to children, assist with restoration projects, paint parish and school buildings, help implement clean water projects, & accompany young women during their formation for religious life. Representatives from our archdiocesan mission will be speaking at masses to share how you can become part of their ongoing work in Guatemala & with the migrant community in the Archdioceses of Omaha.

TOGETHER, we can live our faith through mission & solidarity with our brothers and sisters in Huehuetenango. If you'd like to know more about Ixim, become a missionary supporter, or experience mission yourself, contact Charlie Petro: cpetro@archomaha.org or 531.218.6354

A LETTER FROM FR. ANTHONY

Dear parishioners:

In this weekend's Gospel, Jesus compares the kingdom of heaven to "a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field." He further tells us that it "is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it."

What is the kingdom of heaven? Well, it is the redemption, salvation, and promise of everlasting life Jesus offers us. It is accepting the Father, and Jesus as Messiah, as the king and ruler of our earthly lives. It transforms our lives on earth, because knowing how much God loves us transforms our whole outlook and how we perceive everything in the world and in our lives. We live in a trust, security, and peace that the world cannot give and recognize that the world is a drop in the ocean of eternity. We acknowledge that God has loved us while we were yet sinners, and He loves others as well – even our enemies. He invites us as His children to love them with trust and peace in God rather than in their responses to that love.

I hope that in reading this, you recognize loving others as the key to happiness and joy in this life. Embracing the kingdom is very challenging because it involves setting aside 1) our self-reliance, 2) our selfishness, 3) what the world has to offer as an alternative, and 4) certainly, as the parables most directly allude to, any reliance on or investment of our energies in material goods. Not all are called to be religious brothers or sisters who take a vow of poverty, but all are called to be detached from material goods and be generous with what abundance they have toward those in need.

I want to take the opportunity to recommend two very challenging but excellent and persuasive books: 1) Happy are You Poor: The Simple Life and Spiritual Freedom by Fr. Thomas Dubay, S.M., and 2) Uncluttered Faith: Own Less, Love More, and Make an Impact in Your World by Joshua Becker. Both offer solid interpretations of the Gospel with regards to these issues, as well as concrete ways to put its message into practice. While the Becker book is perhaps more direct and impactful, I would recommend reading Fr. Dubay's book first due to its Catholic perspective, since Becker is a protestant minister. While their message is challenging to our day and age, it offers us the freedom from fear and anxiety that Jesus wants for all of us.

In Christ,

Fr. Anthony
