Seeking Truth Catholic Bible Study starting soon!

Bible Study at St. Peter de Alcantara's, Ewing, NE. Inviting parishioners and friends of Catholic Parishes in Partnership to begin a new session (our 8th year) of Seeking Truth Catholic Bible Study. This year, we will be studying David and the Psalms, starting Wednesday, August 20, 2025, at 9:30 a.m. at St. Dominic's Hall in Ewing. We meet weekly, with 23 lessons. For more information or to register, phone or text Elaine Thoendel at 402-340-5176 or elaine@tlc-ne.com

You will personally benefit from being part of this study and growing in more profound love and understanding of the Biblical roots of our faith. You will also grow in fellowship and friendship with other parishioners as we grow closer to Christ together.

Mass and the sacraments come to life in the understanding of their scriptural basis. You will enjoy lively group discussions in a warm atmosphere and stimulating media presentations for each lesson, led by teaching director Sharon Doran. Please give it a try and see if it can help stir up the Spirit within you. We'd love to have you join us.

"David and the Psalms" (23 Lectures): David and the Psalms is a delightful study that covers the book of Ruth, 1 & 2 Samuel, and the Psalms. The life of David is one from which we can learn a great deal. David had a heart for the Lord. As a young child, he was anointed God's chosen King of Israel. He was not afraid to take on giants and uphold the name of Israel's God. Later in life, David had to fight off the giants of deadly sin in his own life; yet, his psalms reveal a contrite heart of repentance that delighted the Lord. To this day, we pray the psalms at every Mass.. Praying the psalms is Davidic, Christ-like, and godly. Learn about the Davidic Kingdom, which is foundational theology that Jesus Christ would come from in David's Royal Line

We pray for Donald Carter

Dear parishioners,

Last week I mentioned that God will not connect with us in the same way as he did the first time. Think in terms of dating and marriage and you have a part of the answer. Couples must adjust their connection with each other every few years, if not more. Even though they may still hold hands or give each other a kiss throughout their marriage, there are other things that change. Needs change. Their bodies and health change. They know each other better. Hopefully, they will still show their love, but in different ways.

There was a movie called Romancing the Stone. In it two people fell passionately in love. There was a sequel, The Jewel of the Nile. That movie started when the romance was over. They had to adjust. I've seen shows about how a person puts a spell on a person to make them love them. It worked. After a while, the passionate love that seemed to be so important, became very irritating. God is no different. With some people he starts with what feels like a very passionate connection. If he continued that throughout the person's life, it would start to be weird.

He first linked with me as a creator to a boy. Over time that evolved into a working relationship. He then herded me into priesthood. For 47 years I have wanted to serve him, and he has continued to give me opportunities to do that. But even within that framework, things have changed. I became very comfortable in my service to him. Sometimes it just started to feel like a job, or a boss and employee relationship. It seemed to be enough for me, but it wasn't for God. He challenged me by giving me greater challenges. I noticed. My response was a question, "Am I your slave?" His response, "Figure it out." Luckily, I already had a tool by which to do that. My priest's prayerbook is filled with scripture. The answers started to come to me as I prayed those scriptures. Yes, I am his servant, but he wants more than that. Mary was his handmaid, but she was also a loving mother to his son. I am a worker in his vineyard, but I am also a father who needs to be taking care of the real Father's children. To do that well, I must love them. That is different than a job. Most people don't think about loving their customers, but most people do think about loving their children. Along with that, God has spiced up that relationship with me by adding humor and beauty. I am a collector of pictures of sunrises and sunsets that he has shown me. He also throws in an occasional crazy humorous moment to keep me out of the strictly servant role.

God is trying to have a personal connection with each of us. If we are blocking him or fighting against this during parts of our life, the devil will try to move into that open spot and make a personal connection with us. He wants to figure out how to hook you in your weakest areas. He will then cling to that part of our soul. Next week I may delve into that kind of relationship.

God bless you,
Fr. Frank

Thank you to Fr. Frank, Deacon Dennis and Seminarian Andrew for Adoration, Confession and Mass at both retreats!

Thank you to Calvin Neiman for his inaugural year coordinating the boys' retreat. He did an outstanding job!

Thank you to Chelsea Preister, who did another amazing job coordinating the girls' retreat!

A BIG thank you to all of the Jr. Counselors and Counselors for helping make these retreats run smoothly.

And a thank you for the wonderful donations of food and supplies!

AS ALWAYS, WE NEED MORE JESUS!!

May God continue to bless these two retreats and all these young campers.
