Twenty Second Sunday of Ordinary Time

August 28, 2022

A 2ND LOOK... A SPIRITUAL OIL CHANGE... A CHECKUP OF SORTS

We don't believe that God lives disinterested and distant from us. We believe that God is present in our lives and is active in our lives...wherever that takes us and wherever that takes him. Because God is interested in our hearts, he never stops seeking to initiate a deeper relationship with us. In the book of Revelation 3:20, Jesus says, "Behold I stand at the door and knock."

It's not unlike a spiritual oil change. My life as a priest includes a lot of miles in the car. Every so many miles, I need to stop and see the mechanic and get an oil change. When this happens, my car gets a 'look over' to see if something is out of alignment. At times in my life, my relationship with Jesus needs a 'look over', because he could be knocking at the door of my heart and be unheard or unheeded.

As Jesus makes the invitation, I want to be able to respond. Even more, Jesus gives me the grace at a given moment to say 'yes' where I might normally hesitate. This Fall gives us an invitation to see where we are in our relationship with the Lord.

BECOMING CATHOLIC...OR AT LEAST INVESTIGATING IT...

The Greek word 'catholicos' means universal... and that means that the Catholic Church is meant to have a welcome mat. If you are not Catholic and are interested in learning about the Catholic faith and our beliefs and practices, we host 'classes' and discussion in a process called RCIA, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. It is a way to learn about our faith and decide if you would like to join. We take the time to learn and discuss. I'd be happy to discuss this opportunity with anyone interested. This year we have a team approach for this process... with an RCIA info meeting on Sunday, September 18 at 2PM at River Mill Coffee Company in Neligh. Fr. Sund or I would be happy to discuss your situation's specifics. Call my office direct 531-205-2121 or email me jnorman@cppnebraska.org.

CATCHING UP ON SACRAMENTS...IT'S POSSIBLE

Sacraments are privileged moments of grace given to us. Sometimes life circumstances and changes mean that we missed out on receiving a sacrament when others did. Sometimes there are circumstances that delay the Baptism of a child, sometimes we've never received or used the Sacrament of Reconciliation, sometimes we've never received Holy Communion for the first time, or maybe we were never Confirmed. It is possible to be prepared for these sacraments and receive them. Please know that the opportunity is there. This year we have a team approach for this process... with an information meeting on Sunday, September 18 at 2PM at River Mill Coffee Company in Neligh. Fr. Sund or I would be happy to discuss your situation's specifics. Call my office phone directly at 531-205-2121 or email me jnorman@cppnebraska.org.

MARRIAGE IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Since marriage is considered a sacrament in the Catholic Church, it is important to have your marriage relationship recognized under the laws of the Catholic Church. Sometimes our life situations are complex and complicated. We want to offer a desire to help and a willingness to walk with you through steps to bring resolution or healing as best we can. Sometimes regularizing a situation is very straightforward and sometimes it can take time with an annulment process. But since this is important, we want to offer to accompany you in this way. Please don't hesitate to reach out and talk through your situation. Sometimes you can have a feeling that "I want to get this worked out"... remember that asking and getting the information is a first step that lets you decide how to proceed.

GROWING IN FAITH... MATURING IN FAITH...

One of the scriptural images that I find so helpful is the disciples on the road to Emmaus (Lk 24:13-35). They are making a journey, and Jesus draws near to them. They don't recognize him, but he is there. Jesus starts a conversation that prompts their hearts. The tug in their hearts made it the right moment to respond to Jesus. When they finally recognize Jesus, they realize he was there with them along the way.

In our own lives, we can sometimes stall our walk of faith by saying, "Why now?" The truth is that the moment when the Lord knocks or when Jesus tugs at our heart is the right moment to respond. There's a bit of mystery about why my story is told one way and another's story unfolds a different way. We are meant to rejoice in the fact that Jesus is writing our own unique story of salvation. We are made for union with him.

We want to respond to that knock at the door of our heart.

Peace,

St. Boniface 98th Thanksgiving Bazaar November 24, 2022

Plans were laid out at the Bazaar Committee meeting on July 27th for what the Thanksgiving Bazaar will look like this year.

After much discussion, it was decided that the St. Boniface Thanksgiving Bazaar will operate similar as last year, but with the option of either taking a Carry-out to go or taking a Carry-out and sitting at available tables to eat (limited seating). All meals will need to be reserved as were in previous two years. More information about ordering meals and ordering sausage will be available later in September. Raffle tickets will be coming out in September for each parish family to sell. Thank you to our prize solicitors and donors.

Bazaar Work Schedule

Note: Parishioners, if you are unable to help at the Bazaar this year, contact Julie Borer by September 21st at 843-5528.

THE SOLO PROJECT - TWO NIGHTS FREE!

Join us for two nights free at St. Benedict Center in Schuyler, NE!

This offer is specifically for those who have never spent a night at the Center. Come by yourself or with a friend! The Solo Project was made possible by a generous donation to St. Benedict Center. The donor's first time by himself on retreat was life-changing for him. He wants as many people as possible to experience St. Benedict Center, Schuyler. Schedule your retreat by calling (402) 352-8819.

Want to receive your bulletin each week by email through Flocknote?

Just let us know to sign you up by emailing us at parish@cppnebraska.org and ask to be added. Please provide primary email address(s), so you receive weekly email of bulletin and Father's comments, (and cell phones if wish to receive more immediate notification, which is very limited).
If you have been receiving the bulletin on your email and all the sudden it quits coming, please check your JUNK FOLDER in your email. If you find one named Fr. John Norman, CPP Nebraska, right click the email before you open it, and choose Report and Not Junk. It should help them come to the correct folder in the future.

Our Combined Parish VOCATION COMMITTEE Meeting will be held Thursday, September 8 at 9:30am at the St. Boniface Meeting Room in the convent. Also we would like someone from St. Peter's Parish to join our Vocation group. If interested or with questions, contact Cheryl Veik at 843-8023 or Karen Eischeid 843-5987.

"Partners in Education" is an effort to supplement the portion of St. Boniface Elementary School tuition that some families are unable to provide for a variety of reasons. All donations and recipients are strictly anonymous. If you would like to give something for this worthwhile cause, please mail to St. Boniface School PIE Fund, PO Box B, Elgin Nebraska. No amount too small! You make a difference!

Ascension Bible Study on the Gospel of Matthew, starting Monday, September 12 at 4:00 pm in the St. Francis Catholic Church Hall. All welcome! Please call Kathy Sauser 402-841-5427 by September 1, so that needed books can be ordered along with any questions you might have. All are welcome.
