Dear parishioners,

I have one more idea I would like to share concerning this change of seasons. For those of you who are not harvesting, these next weeks can bring about a tough thing to shake, dread. It is the dread of winter, of the loss of long and sunny days, the coming of snow, ice, and cold. For most of us, that is not our prime time. This feeling of dread can creep up on us and bring us down if we recognize it for what it is. It is not an actual problem. It is like worry, which also doesn't solve anything. I used to have a poster that helped me with this. It said, "Worrying doesn't solve anything, but it gives me something to do until the trouble starts." Why waste days that can be productive and filled with God's adventures for us with dread or worry? Or as Jesus says, "Do not worry about tomorrow; tomorrow will take care of itself. Sufficient for a day is its own evil.

We are to face the things God asks of us today without adding the added weight of what we imagine might happen tomorrow. Those of you who have already completed the harvest should have an easier time of this for the moment, as you are busy with productive work and hopefully giving thanks to God for what He has done for us this year, for more people, which makes things easier. In fact, it is the key to overcoming dread. Be productive. Make a list of things you can accomplish. Check them off one by one. Enjoy the little gifts that come from God each day, such as the sunrise or sunset, and thank Him. All of this is the opposite of dread and a lot more fun.

God bless you,

Fr. Frank

All Saints' Day – November 1st

All Saints' Day is a joyful celebration of all the saints, known and unknown, who now live in the fullness of God's presence in Heaven. This feast reminds us that holiness isn't just for a few extraordinary people, but a call for each of us. The saints were ordinary men and women who lived with exceptional faith, love, and perseverance. They show us what it means to follow Christ in everyday life.

A Day for Reflection:

As we honor the saints, take time to think about the people who have shaped your faith—family members, friends, or community members who lived with quiet holiness. Reflect on these questions:

- What virtues or actions make someone a “saint” in your eyes?
- How can I live my daily life in a way that draws me closer to God?
- What can I learn from the example of my favorite saint?

How to Celebrate All Saints' Day:

- Attend Mass – All Saints' Day is a Holy Day of Obligation, a time to worship and give thanks for the saints' intercession and example.
- Pray with the Saints – Ask for their prayers and guidance in your life.
- Learn About a Saint – Read the story of a saint who inspires you or your family.
- Honor Loved Ones – Light a candle or say a prayer for loved ones who have gone before you in faith.
- Live Like a Saint – Do an act of kindness, forgiveness, or mercy in their honor.

All Saints' Day reminds us that we are all called to holiness. The same grace that made the saints holy is available to us today. Let us rejoice in our heavenly family and strive to follow their example of love and faithfulness.

HOPE OF THE POOR MISSION TRIP & PILGRIMAGE TO MEXICO CITY with Fr. Frank Baumert

Join Blessed Art Thou Tours on a one-of-a-kind Hope of the Poor Mission Trip and Pilgrimage to Mexico City, January 29 to February 4, 2026. Experience the love of Our Lady of Guadalupe as she leads us closer to her Son, Jesus Christ, through the poor. Accompanied by Rev. Frank Baumert, Priest of the Archdiocese of Omaha, missionaries Craig Johring and Danny Leger of Hope of the Poor will be leading us to bring the light of Christ into the darkest mission fields. We will be staying in Mexico City at the beautiful Convent Real Monastery De Jesus Maria located in the shadow of the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Our registered group leader is Jolene Jefferies, Parish Manager of St. Patrick in Gretna.

We are planning a full immersion into Our Lady of Guadalupe and her poorest of the poor at the Mexico City homeless women's shelter, as well as an orphanage run by a Catholic Sister, and the La Raza community street kids. We will explore the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe, home to the Tilma of Juan Diego occupying the living image of our blessed mother, Our Lady of Guadalupe, and enjoy Mass there on a few occasions. At the Basilica we will also serve the homeless. In addition to serving the poor, we will take some time for a fun Cablebus Gondola Tour, a visit to the Church of the Fifth Apparition, the San Juan Teotihuacan Pyramids (a UNESCO world heritage site), the Mexico City Metropolitan Cathedral and so much more!

To learn more about the trip itinerary, cost, and related details, see the flyer here:
<https://blessedartthoutours.com/wp-content/uploads/2025/09/Mission-and-Pilgrimage-Flyer-Mexico-City-V4.pdf>

Please be sure to attend our upcoming Mexico City Pilgrimage Info Meeting on Monday, October 27, 2025, at 6:00 PM at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Gretna. Father Frank will be in attendance. This meeting will last for approximately 90 minutes.

Are you ready to experience Christ in the poor? For questions, please contact Jolene Jefferies at 402-957-1082 or jolene@blessedartthoutours.com.
