PASTOR MESSAGE:

This week’s 2nd reading makes reference to the many different gifts that exist in the body of Christ. Sometimes I think that we can become jealous of another’s talents while we do not take notice of our own. We don’t have to become jealous of another’s gifts, talents, competencies, or skills.

The metaphor of us being the Body of Christ is a help in recognizing the incredible differences and uniqueness that exist in the body. Just like an eye is different from a toe or a nose, the many different parts of the community of faith in Christ are meant to work towards a unified end. We are given a church and community of faith to help us live this reality.

St. Paul lists out some of the different gifts as a way that God builds up his community. The gifts that we have are meant to be shared.

Collaboration: One of the initiatives that will be coming up in the month of February will be a “priest swap” between myself, Fr. Pat Niels, and Fr. Kevin Vogel on the weekends of Feb 2-3 and the weekend of Feb 23-24. As we move towards working together more, it’s nice to have a chance to meet the different priests. More to come!

Peace, Fr. John
