PASTOR MESSAGE:

In our recent history, this first weekend in June is the Archdiocese of Omaha’s Priesthood Ordinations. It’s not unlike a type of homecoming week or reunion when we gather together each year for this celebration.

- June 1st is my 6th anniversary of priesthood ordination.
- June 2nd is Fr. Patrick Moser’s first anniversary
- June 4th is Fr. Kevin Vogel’s 8th anniversary

It’s hard to think that we have already made it a year from the party we planned for Fr. Moser’s ordination festivities.

There’s a lot of gratitude in my heart for the gift of my vocation and life as a priest. When the invitation is there from God, it promises an adventure that you could not plan or imagine. But the priesthood is more precisely called the ministerial priesthood, because our vocation and calling is to service of the baptized. We are called to serve the people of God.

This life of service is also a way of actively communicating my love for my parishes and communities that I am called to serve. God is the ultimate ‘matchmaker’ and he has put us together. I am really grateful that he has called me to be your priest, and I look forward to our continued adventures together.

I ask for prayers as we continue to move forward with a future for our parishes together.

Peace, Fr. John

For your planning...Because of the ArchOmaha Unite event in Omaha, ON JUNE 8TH there are no Saturday evening Masses in the Archdiocese.

In July, our weekend mass schedule will change as follows:

- Saturday 5:30 PM – St. Peter’s in Ewing
- Sunday 10:00 AM – St. Theresa’s in Clearwater
- Sunday 11:30 AM – Rural St. John’s

And

- Saturday 7:00 PM – St. John the Baptist, Petersburg
- Sunday 8:00 AM – St. Bonaventure, Raeville
- Sunday 10:00 AM – St. Boniface, Elgin

Currently, there is not an expected change to the daily mass schedule.
