PASTOR MESSAGE:

We are in our ‘Green’ Ordinary Time season, which might seem a little ironic as we enter into a new style of parish administration. It seems a bit out of the ordinary and unusual for a time in the church year that we specifically call ordinary.

This church season calls attention to the fact that this is the normal time of ‘living our lives’. Life happens here... whether messy or not messy. Vacations or time away sometimes becomes available. Agriculturally, this is a season of growing... It is also a season for us to grow spiritually.

We have Totus Tuus coming, and we want our kids to sign up. Sometimes high schoolers attend JC Camp. This year I am excited that Camp Virtus and Veritas still has some openings! They added a second week because it always gets filled so quickly!

We will also have our preparations for the county fair. And this weekend we have the excitement of the Clearwater Rodeo!

God isn’t absent to us in these days and weeks because they are called ‘ordinary’... so we should also continue to share our life and relationship with him. If you are traveling and looking for a church, try masstimes.org.

Next week we will begin sharing a single bulletin across our six parishes. Please continue to pray for the transition.

Peace, Fr. John
