A little about Father Vogel

My parents are Ken and Carol Vogel of Howells. My dad farms and my mom is head teacher at Howells Community Catholic School. My brother Adam is an electronics engineer in Kansas City, my sister Rachel is an artist but works for a workman's comp company in Omaha, my sister Rita and her husband Ben who have a daughter Sophia (who is my goddaughter), a son Luke, and are expecting their third child, live in Terry, Montana and farm. As a family we enjoy going on vacation together and usually take in nature through hiking.

I enjoy teaching our faith to students and adults alike. Having studied physics prior to entering the seminary, I especially like investigating the interaction between faith and science. Following the work of both my grandmothers, I have become interested in family genealogy. This has led me to visit many Nebraska cemeteries where I pray for the deceased and take photos of the gravestones, which I then upload to a genealogy website (Billiongraves.com) for people to find their ancestors.

I love the beauty of our faith, especially church art, architecture, and sacred music. I have created virtual tours of our six churches showing the beauty and meaning of the symbols found within. (We hope to put links to these on our website soon.) I enjoy singing and learning new music, mainly chant. I have a YouTube channel where one can find recordings of many of my faith talks, homilies, and sacred music (www.youtube.com/user/vogelkw/).

One Church: encountering Jesus, equipping disciples, living mercy.

A little about me.....

My family settled in Papillion, NE when I was in kindergarten back in 1992. My dad's side of the family is from upstate New York near the baseball hall of fame, and my mom's family is from Colorado. It seems pretty logical that my parents would meet in California... my parents are both physical therapists, and they were working in the same place. Fast forwarding, my dad got a job teaching in the physical therapy program at UNMC, and we came to Nebraska...and Nebraska became home.

I have an older brother Dan, who is married to Chrissy and lives in Kansas City, working at Garmin, which is the same company as Fr. Vogel's brother. I have two younger sisters Chris and Kay. Chris lives in Chicago and works as an accountant. Kay is working in St. John's, Kansas with AmeriCorps.

I grew up and spent a lot of time in Boy Scouts, earning my Eagle Scout, and camping, backpacking, and cooking in the great outdoors. I also played soccer through eighth grade. I ran cross country and track as a freshman, and I was involved with our choir, show choir, and broadcasting clubs. I've studied Spanish, Russian, Latin, Greek, and Italian as foreign languages.

I enjoyed studying philosophy and Catholic studies in college, and I enjoyed my study of theology. My area of special interest is the relationship between faith and culture as well as the process of conversion.

I do enjoy driving (which fits really well with my current occupation), podcasts, books, books on tape, and working on team based projects.

I want to thank a couple groups of people who went above and beyond this week in sharing their gifts of time and talent. Thank you to those who helped make Totus Tuus a reality for the parishes of St. Peter's, St. Theresa's and St. John's. What an amazing opportunity for our young parishioners! Also, a hearty thank-you to the men of St. John's Parish of Petersburg for coming together for the Parish Workday.

Peace,
