Twenty Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 15, 2019

Interested in Learning More about the Catholic Faith?
Interested in receiving Baptism, Confirmation, or Communion as an adult?
Talk to a priest. Ask the Office.

IS FAITH REALLY LIFE-GIVING? IS FAITH WORTH SHARING? IS FAITH WORTH EXPLORING?

We make the claim that our faith is a life-giving reality. We make the claim that our faith is the source of our Christian joy. We make the claim that we have freedom because of Jesus Christ. We make the claim that faith is the root and anchor of who we are and what we do... it's the reason that we gather, worship in liturgy, communicate in prayer, live as witness to faith, receive his grace, and live as icons of Jesus Christ.

If what we claim is so good, have we ever invited somebody to check it out? Sometimes we are afraid to invite because we are challenged most about the authenticity of our own faith when we seek to share it. Sometimes we don't invite because we don't know where to invite someone. In Mass, things are not self-explanatory. Why do we stand, sit, or kneel at different parts of the service? Why does the priest dress as he does to lead the service? Why do we say the Our Father a little differently than our other Christian brothers and sisters? Why can only Catholics go to Communion? Why are there a different number of books in the Old Testament between Catholic bibles and other Christian bibles? Why do we baptize infants when some just baptize adults? Why do we not eat meat on Fridays of Lent? Why do we even have a season of Lent? What is the season of Lent?

To say that our faith is a lived reality is an understatement. You start understanding our way of living faith by doing it. Our religion is made up of Faith, Facts, and factoids. There's the gift of faith in Jesus Christ, there's the truths of what we believe, and there's many interesting factoids connected to the 2000 year old church that Jesus Christ founded to help us get to heaven.

WE CAN MAKE AN INVITATION

The Catholic Church has a formal process called 'RCIA'. It stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. It is a way that helps us accompany teenagers and adults who are wanting to be baptized, become Catholic, be confirmed, or receive Communion. It is a journey or accompaniment that helps us explore faith, the content of our faith, and our faith communities together. There is complete freedom for someone to come or not come; there is complete freedom for someone to become Catholic or not become Catholic in this process.

OUR GOSPEL CHALLENGES US

The Gospel this weekend (Lk 15: 1-32) recounts the parable of the two sons, sometimes called the parable of the Prodigal Son. Many times, our homilies and reflections can focus on the gift of welcoming someone home. There's an incredible joy for God the Father when someone makes it home into the heart of the Church.

However, we should let ourselves also be challenged by the image of the older son. God, as the Father, welcomed the prodigal son. The older son is unwilling to do so. He is so blinded by his own pride, his self-righteousness, and his stubbornness that he no longer wants to be part of the Father's house and he certainly no longer wants to be part of the Father's celebration.

When I say that the mission and purpose for why we exist is Together, We Make Disciples, I mean that we are meant to do it because we share in the Father's love and joy.

When we put ourselves in a position that isolates us from pursuing this common goal, we can separate ourselves from the invitation of Jesus and the welcome of God the Father. We want to make sure that we don't let our own pride and stubbornness get in the way of the mission that Jesus has given us. Our faith is important to us. Our faith is meant to be shared. And in order for us to be believed, our faith must be lived in a real and authentic way.

FOOD AND FELLOWSHIP...

Our communities continue to have gatherings coming up! I hope you stop for Breakfast at St. Theresa's on Sunday... I can verify that we have lots of syrup! Rural St. John's Soup Luncheon will be October 13... St. Bonaventure will have a Soup Supper on November 10... St. Peter's Bazaar will be on November 17... And Thanksgiving will be at St. Boniface November 28!!

Peace,
