Feast of Christ the King

November 24, 2019

This is the time of year where it's dangerous to look like a turkey or even sound like a turkey. Above, the blind farmer is looking for his Thanksgiving dinner!! Little does he know that the best place to go for Thanksgiving dinner is the St. Boniface 95th Annual Thanksgiving Bazaar. My parents and my sisters are coming up this year, although my brother 'chickened out'. I hope to see you there!

There are so many different words to describe a group of animals. Sheep are usually in flocks. Wolves are in packs. Bobcats are in clowders. A group of lions is a pride, and geese are in a gaggle. Eagles are a convocation. A group of cardinals is a college. Cattle are in herds.

COMMUNICATING WITH OUR FLOCK-NOTE

In addition to the giving opportunities with Tithely listed last week at <https://cppnebraska.org/donate>, we are also seeking to improve our ability to communicate and send out news and notifications. For some of our communities, this may be old news. We are using a program called Flocknote to send ministry related email and text messages. If we had to make a last-minute 'emergency' adjustments for weather, we can send a text message. Flocknote also offers us the ability to send out the bulletin each week by email. We also have an optional email list for Lenten and Advent daily reflections.

Signing up for Flocknote is straightforward. From your phone, you can send a text message to 84576 with one of the keywords (which are case sensitive... and without the 'quotation marks')

- 'ewing' for St. Peter de Alcantara
- 'clearwater' for St. Theresa of Avila
- 'deloit' for St. John's, Rural Clearwater
- 'elgin' for St. Boniface
- 'raeville' for St. Bonaventure
- '68652' for St. John the Baptist, Petersburg

For email, you can just let us know at parish@cppnebraska.org. We've got a number of people from St. Peter's, St. Theresa's, Rural St. John's, and St. John the Baptist in Petersburg on our list. We're hoping to get the word out to St. Bonaventure and St. Boniface!!

GETTING TO KNOW OUR PRIESTS – BIRTHDAY ALERT!

Since there are two priests serving our area, I encourage you to take some time to get to know each of us. Fr. Vogel just turned 37 on Wednesday, November 20th... I think we should make sure that he's still celebrating!

If someone were to ask how we know which priest is in which parish for the weekend, we list it in the bulletin with the mass intentions. If someone wants to know how we schedule the priests, we start with the idea of every other weekend... Weekend A: Fr. Vogel is here / Fr. John is there Weekend B: Fr. John is here / Fr. Vogel is there.

Then, we look at wedding commitments that each of us has here and elsewhere. We look at priest travel considerations and other commitments like March for Life... and then we try and balance our time to be about half the time in one place and half the time in the other. At the beginning of the summer, I was in the 'Northern Shift' for most of the weekends. Right now, I am more heavily weighted in the 'Southern Shift'. We're making an attempt at balance... but it isn't an exact science... You should know, though, that science is Fr. Vogel's specialty!

Peace,

Fr. John
