Know Your Faith: THE DOMESTIC CHURCH

Did you know... That the tradition of the Church refers to the family as the domestic church? This is because our families are communities of faith, good works and prayer. Our families are called to be the first teachers of our children in the faith. Families work in cooperation with priests, teachers and religious educators to make sure that their children learn and live out our wonderful faith! The Church is made up of many little domestic churches (or families) that serve as a sign of the love and communion of the Holy Trinity! It's neat to think about this, every time you gather and pray as a family, you are a sign or a glimpse of the love of the Trinity!

Visit with your tax consultant & call the parish office & ask for Michele for more details.
