Sister Patricia Hoffman (retired) 402-843-5461

Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the KINGDOM of GOD.
Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.
Blessed are you when men hate you, when they exclude you and reject your name as evil, because of the SON of MAN.
Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, because great is your reward in HEAVEN.
For that is how their fathers treated the prophets.
LUKE 6:20-23 (NIV)

Sermon on the Plain

And he came down with them and stood on a stretch of level ground.
Everyone in the crowd sought to touch him because power came forth from him and healed them all.

Luke 6:17, 19

The beatitudes in today's Gospel can explain any one of us at any given time in our lives, depending on where we are in our journey. There are times of heartache that can absolutely blind us, making us fail to recognize and appreciate the real treasure of God's Kingdom. In all the blessings and heartache, whatever you are facing at this moment, know that God will address it and He will redeem it.
Rejoice and be glad, yours is the Kingdom of God.

A Year of Hospitality

'The LORD appeared to Abraham by the oak of Mamre, as he sat in the entrance of his tent...he saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the entrance of the tent to greet them ...He ran to the herd, picked out a tender, choice calf, and gave it to a servant, who quickly prepared it. Then he got some curds and milk, as well as the calf that had been prepared, and set these before them, waiting on them under the tree while they ate' (Genesis 18:1-8).

In this well-known passage from Genesis, we see the hospitality of Abraham. While he was in the presence of the Lord, he saw the three men and he proceeded to welcome them, feed them and wait on them....to practice hospitality....

A common definition of hospitality is 'the friendly and generous reception and entertainment of guests, visitors, or strangers.' However, hospitality is much more than a simple welcome or an offer of food or drink....hospitality is more than just being gracious and inviting guests into our homes. It's about creating an atmosphere of warmth and welcome that makes everyone feel at ease. We see this in the actions of Abraham...this is what we do in our own homes when we welcome others...this is what we want others to feel and experience. As part of our faith and tradition, hospitality is a sacred duty to provide for others' needs, whether they be physical, emotional, or spiritual. Hospitality is an attitude of heart that opens us to others and receives them on their own terms.

Hospitality implies attentiveness to others, even anticipating their needs. Jesus models that attentiveness. He noticed the sick, the excluded, the hungry, those that others passed by. Hospitality is a gift and a virtue. There is a sacredness in welcoming another into our home as Church.

In our family of parishes, we want to make 2025 a Year of Hospitality. We want to cultivate the virtue of hospitality throughout our family of parishes, to offer 'warmth and welcome', not only to members of our family of churches, but to visitors, strangers, our communities, and the wider world. Over the coming weeks, we will be reaching out to all parish ministries, to help encourage an atmosphere of 'warmth and welcome'.

Hospitality is a beautiful expression of love that strengthens relationships and builds community. In a world that can often be cold and impersonal, we need hospitality more than ever. Let us strive then, to cultivate it in our lives, our homes and in our churches and let us welcome and serve each other with open hearts and hands. To practice hospitality often leads to receiving a blessing, such occurred to Abraham and Sarah.

"Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels." Hebrews 13:2

Deacon John Starman

Here are some ways you can practice hospitality in your own life:

~ Attend a church event and take part in the fellowship: visiting with others, asking about their lives and loved ones and sharing about yours.

~ Have another couple or family over for a meal. This is a wonderful way to cultivate lasting friendships.

~ Host or lead a small group in your home or church. If God put the desire in your heart, He will bless your efforts!

~ Volunteer for a parish ministry (EMHC, Gift Bearer, Greeter, Lector, Sacristan, Server, Usher). It is a gift to partake in helping serve at Mass in these ways.

~ If you are unable to fulfill your assigned ministry, ask someone to sub or switch. When we communicate and help each other out in this way, it works to build the feeling of parish life and community.

"Blessed are you when people hate you...exclude and insult you, and denounce your name...on account of the Son of Man." - LUKE 6:22

All of us have been in situations when someone has made a negative comment or joke about God or our Catholic faith. How did you respond? Did you stay silent or pretend to go along with the crowd because you didn't want to cause waves and then, later, you felt bad? Know that God is with you all the time; the Holy Spirit will put the right words in your mouth. Pray for the strength and courage to proclaim our faith to others, especially during uncomfortable situations.

THE HEALTHY COUPLE WEEKEND

GROWING TOGETHER IN LOVE, CONNECTION & INTIMACY

Join us for a transformative weekend marriage retreat designed to strengthen your relationship and deepen your connection with your spouse. Together, we'll explore the "why" behind a Christian perspective on marriage, discovering how putting God at the center can bring renewed purpose and unity. You'll learn valuable communication skills, practical tools for conflict resolution, and enjoy meaningful one-on-one time to reflect and grow together. Whether you're newlyweds or have been married for years, this retreat offers a sacred space to deepen your bond and build a marriage that thrives with God's guidance.
